KIRK MARTIN

Biographical Notes On The Artist. Born in Colorado in 1905, Kirk Martin comes by his love of printing naturally, said Ed Ainsworth in, The Cowboy In Art. His father, a country printer, taught Kirk the trade at age ten. The qualities of patience and exactitude are required for both a printer and a wood engraver. Martin was inspired to do woodblock carving by the late Paul Landacre, a Los Angeles artist whose bookplates are well known. Western subjects, particularly horses, are a Kirk Martin specialty. His prints, originally created as illustrations for books, poems, or for framing, adapt beautifully to ex libris as demonstrated by the prints Tony Kroll created for the Walkers and Audrey Arellanes. Any members intrested in commissioning a bookplate may write Kirk Martin, P. O. Box 542, Yucca Valley, CA 92284. The beautiful mural, "Men To Match Our Mountains," now hanging in the multipurpose room of the Community Center, was done by this talented artist. We take great pleasure in dedicating this directory to Kirk Martin.
